

TEACH ONE REACH ONE

Tips For Helping Kids Resolve Conflict:

1

Give your kids time alone to calm down.

2

Have each child think about how they feel and why they feel that way.

3

Teach your kids to calmly tell each other how they feel, using the following sentences. "I feel _____ when you _____, because _____ . I would like _____ ."

4

Do not let your kids use ugly words when talking to each other.

5

Have each child repeat what the other child wants and needs in their own words.

6

Let each child tell their wants and needs again if they believe they were not restated correctly.

7

Have your kids list as many possible solutions to the problem as possible.

8

Help your kids pick the solution that will help everyone get what they need.
